ART SALE-AUCTION AT NEW S.G.W.U. GALLERY

The Alumni Art Council of Sir George Williams University will sponsor an art sale-auction October 15-24 in the gallery of the new Henry F. Hall Building at Burnside and Bishop.

Over sixty works by Canadian artists are expected, ranging in price from $20 to $4,500.

Some of the artists contributing are Sam Borenstein, Ghitta Caiserman-Roth, Edwy F. Cooke, Henriette Fauteux-Massé, David Feist, Betty Goodwin, Allan Harrison, Claire Hogenkamp, Stanley Horner, Dennis Jones, Henry W. Jones, Roy Kiyooka, Patrick Landsley, Robert Lanstadt, John Little, Jean McEwan, F. John Miller, Guido Molinari, Louis Muhlstock, Donald Perkins, Alfred Pinsky, Moe Reinblatt, Goodridge Roberts, L. Simons, Gord Smith, Tobie T. Steinhouse, Philip Surrey, Roslyn Swartzman, Julie Szablowski, Sylvia Tait, and Gentile Tondino.

The event, to gain funds for additions to the University's permanent collection, will familiarize the public with the new gallery. Conveniently located on the second-floor indoor campus of the Hall Building, the gallery will later exhibit much of the University's permanent collection.

Mrs. Henry G. Worrell is Chairman of S.G.W.U.'s Alumni Art Council.

Note: For further information, please phone Mrs. Henry G. Worrell at 695-2324.
